

Banjaara 2023

Rules and Regulations

1. Official festival timing of Banjaara 2023 is 8:30 am to 8:00 pm on 25th - 26th March.
2. All the participants must check in latest by 5:30 pm on both days of the festival. Participants will not be allowed into campus after the said time.
3. All participants inside the campus must leave between 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm. No participants can stay on the premises after 8:00 pm on the days of the festival.
4. The Entry-Exit point for the festival will be Gate #01 of Ashoka University. No participant will be allowed to enter or exit from any other Gate.
5. All registered participants will be given a band on entry for both days. However, you can enter only once each day. The band will be torn at the time of exit and the participant will not be allowed re-entry. You will be removed from the campus premises if you are not wearing the band.
6. Participants must carry a College/University-issued ID card at all times and produce it on demand by the security staff or any other authorised personnel.
7. At the time of entry, all bags will be checked by the Security personnel at Gate #01.
8. Participants are not permitted to retain a private vehicle within campus premises.
9. No beverages except sealed transparent water bottles will be allowed in at any time from outside the Ashoka University Campus.
10. The sale, distribution, manufacture, and use of alcohol, tobacco, and/or other controlled substances is expressly prohibited on Ashoka University premises. Sharp objects and weapons of any kind are strictly prohibited as well.
11. No loose cigarettes, e-cigarettes, vaporizers etc. will be allowed in the Campus. Confiscated items will not be returned to the participants.
12. In case objectionable items are found in the bag, the entry of the particular individual will be banned from Ashoka University premises.
13. Non–Ashoka University security officers will not be allowed to enter the Campus with participants. They shall have to wait outside.
14. The campus visitation policy for guests of Ashoka University students (Refer Residence Life Policy Article V.A) will remain suspended the days of the festival. Exceptions will only be made for visiting parents who will be permitted with a special permission granted by the Residence Life Office. In such cases, a request should be made over email with details of the visit at least 24 hours prior to scheduled visit.
15. Participants are expected to cooperate with the Safety and Security personnel and the Banjaara organising team to ensure the efficient execution of this process. The authorised personnel can deny permission entry to any participant, especially in cases where they are found to be in violation of the rules and regulations stated herein.

16. All spaces except the festival venues will be out of bounds for all participants, including but not limited to:
  - Residence Halls (RH 01-05)
  - Faculty Housing (FH 01 & 02)
  - Sports Complex
  - Administrative Block
  - Basement Area
  - Student Commons
  - Science Block (AC 03)
  - Library Block (AC 04)
  - Terrace
17. Ashoka University takes no responsibility for the safety of personal items and belongings on or off campus.
18. All relevant Ashoka University policies will be applicable to participants.
19. Ashoka University reserves all rights to admission and to change or amend any rules without informing at any given time during the festival.
20. Participants found in violation of rules and regulations stated herein shall be subject to disciplinary measures within the University including but not limited to removal from campus premises. The participant's behaviour shall be communicated to their home university, alongside other external administrative measures.
21. Upon any damage or loss to University property, costs incurred for the purposes of repair or replacement will be billed to the participant(s) found responsible in addition to disciplinary measures.
22. Banjaara is committed to providing assistance to people with disabilities during the entire festival. If you require assistance, please make your needs known in advance so that we can work with you to meet them as best as possible.
23. The festival will have a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of behaviour from participants intended to violate the dignity of others. Bullying, harassment or hate crimes of any kind will not be condoned, tolerated or ignored under any circumstances. Please reach out to the authorised personnel on-ground in case of any such incidents or other emergencies.
24. Participants can avail of the facility of the Help Desk(s), located outside the Mess, on the Food Street, and behind the Open Amphitheatre, in case of any emergency during the festival, either by visiting the desk or giving a call on the following Helpline numbers:

- Helpdesk 1 - 7054412866 (Sania Bhargava)
